1. Mission. The 610th Intelligence Flight (610 IF) is a reserve operational component of the Air Intelligence Agency (AIA), executing defensive information operations that shape the national security environment. The 610 IF is a specialized reserve unit consisting of a worldwide team of intelligence professionals, supporting global engagement, and securing and maintaining information superiority for AIA and the Air Force. The 610 IF provides real-time electronic systems security assessment intelligence products to support national, theater, and tactical customers.

2. Command. The Commander (610 IF/CC):

- 2.1. Is subordinate to the 67th Intelligence Group, Commander (67 IG/CC), when mobilized.
- 2.2. Commands the intelligence elements of the 610 IF on a global spectrum.

3. Responsibilities. The 610 IF/CC:

- 3.1. Exercises command and control of 610 IF personnel dispersed among operating locations worldwide.
- 3.2. Participates in air component operations by providing personnel, equipment, focused collection, and tailored services.
- 3.3. Collects raw information by monitoring friendly computer and communications systems.
- 3.4. Provides communication-computer systems security services to tactical warfighters, theater-battle managers, and AIA intelligence integration activities.
